Wanted: Girl Scout information

By Brian Arrington
The Walton Tribune

Published March 4, 2007

The 95th anniversary year of Girl Scouting kicks off on March 12.

To celebrate, The Walton Tribune and The Loganville Tribune are asking parents of such wonderful girls to submit pictures and information about local troops to us.

We will publish them in the Wednesday edition of The Walton Tribune on March 14 and in the Friday edition of The Loganville Tribune on March 16.

Girl Scouts of Northeast Georgia will join the celebration with special activities in the Northeast Georgia area, highlighting the Girl Scout tradition of "building leadership through action that makes the world a better place," according to Girl Scout officials.

Anniversary events include:

- "Girl Scouts Make the World a Better Place Week," March 12-19, featuring good deeds by 3.6 million Girl Scout members around the country.
- Forever Green Day; March 12, a day where all Girl Scouts and supporters are asked to wear green.
- The spring release of a new Girl Scout Research Institute research review on girls and leadership.
- A national tree-planting initiative this spring in which each of the 302 local Girl Scout councils plants 95 trees donated by the nonprofit The Future of Life (www.futureoflife.org).

If you have local Girl Scout information, get it to us by Monday afternoon via e-mail to news\(at\)waltontribune.comwaltontribune.com) or drop it off at our offices at 124 North Broad St., Monroe.

Hope to hear from you.
