Girl Scouts to celebrate 95th anniversary

10:21 AM CST on Saturday, March 10, 2007

The Girl Scouts Cross Timbers Council, which has offices in Denton and Highland Village and serves five northeast Texas counties, will join Girl Scouts nationwide March 12-19 in celebrating the organization's 95th anniversary. Local participation includes "Girl Scouts Make the World a Better Place Week," featuring good deeds by the local Scouts; a spring release of a new Girl Scout Research Institute research review on girls and leadership; and a tree-planting initiative where Scouts plant trees as part of the "Trees for the 21st Century" program.
